Donna k: I sometimes lose a tool (such as a shovel) that I thought I needed for the next job; so I am forced to use a different tool (such as a trowel) which turns out to be much better. Later I find the missing tool in a very strange place! I am sure the gnomes had something to do with this!

Robert B: do gnomes really look like the Travelocity guy?

Lisa D: If there is time, I have a little story about my gardening.

Cathleen A: Virgo and Pelleur asked us to recall a "problem" experience which later turned out for the best. I suggest we all add our stories to the Forum.

Jenny P: Thank you! ;-)

Holly N 2: Thank you Robert, Ralph and David too!

Tucker R: Thanks David, Nancy, Robert and Ralph, great class!!
